CLARESHOLM LOCAL NEWS

J. Chilton's little boy who has been seriously ill is now progressing favorably.

S. C. Williams has purchased the new house recently built by Mr. Fenlon east of the track.

F. Dorris and wife are in Spokane. Their daughter has been involved there and is reported to be improving.

Mrs. McKinney M. L. A. left for Edmonton on Monday morning to attend the Legislature, which opened on Tuesday.

A son of W. H. Whitehead met with a painful accident last week. He was thrown from a horse and sustained a broken leg.

Joe Cheadle returned last week from Spokane, where he has been inspecting the mines in which he is financially interested.

Not once did the temperature drop more than a few degrees below freezing during the month of January. Old timers say that this has been the mildest winter since 1889.

Dr. Brewster, who has been practicing as a veterinarian in Calgary for the past twelve months, returned to Claresholm on Saturday last and will again commence his practice here.

R. K. Peck has been appointed chairman of the War Savings committee. A public meeting will probably be called in the near future, and arrangements made for a strenuous campaign.

W. Moffatt returned last Sunday from his trip to California. He visited Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Francisco and was not a member of Claresholm folks who are spending the winter in the land of flowers and fruit.

Geo. Carney recently sent a snapshot of himself and a number of Claresholm folks who are visiting in the south. It was taken on the border line between California and Mexico. T. C. Milnes and George appear in Mexican costume, while the latter seems to be holding up the Mexican guard at the point of a revolver.

Rev. Dalgleish, of Crescent Heights church, Calgary, preached missionary sermons in the Methodist church last Sunday. His appeal for missions met with a ready response and about $1,300.00 was contributed by the congregation. The objective this year is $2,000.00. Last year a total of about $1,700.00 was raised. The Calgary Central Methodist is the only Methodist church in Alberta that surpasses the Claresholm Methodist church in missionary giving.

RED CROSS NOTES

It is very much hoped that there will be a good turnout at the meeting to be held at 8:30 p.m. February 8, in the Red Cross room, as several matters of great importance must be decided at once and the wishes of a good majority of the workers should be known.

Letters of thanks for Christmas presents have come recently from the following: Major Lyndon, Sam Gates, Private McHenry, Wallace Sequin, Atkinson, Etkineep, Wallace Cox, Cadwell, Stundi, Fair, Francis, Darch, Fields, Sheld and Henderson. Several have conveyed their thanks through relatives in town. All appreciated very much the remembrance.

The Sanatorium, Frank, Nov. 23

Dear Madam:

At your kind invitation, I am sending you a few lines concerning the Red Cross work. It is really very kind of the Claresholm ladies to think of us in this way and I am sure the boys will enjoy the cakes. I am specially interested in this donation, as my brother, G. Gates, lived for some years in Claresholm and I have often been there. I hope all young boys and girls will helpfully support the Red Cross work as it is at last over. Again thanking you one and all. Yours sincerely,

W. Gates, Matron.

The cost of ALBERTA MUNICIPAL HAIL INSURANCE is so low that no farmer can afford to be without it—

Consider this. Over a period of five years (1914-18) The Alberta Municipal Hail Insurance District has carried a total of $33,000,000.00 of insurance at an average premium of less than 5%. During that time the average cost of operating expenses was only a trifle over five cents on the dollar. The new plan promises even better results.

As there are no profits to be made or dividends to be paid, it provides the opportunity for fair adjustment of all claims on the basis of actual damage done.

You will save money by voting for Municipal Hail Insurance at the forthcoming Election.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1919

At the missionary services last Sabbath Rev. Delgleisch emphasized the fact that the two nations that were supreme in world power politically, industrially and educationally, were the powers that had given the Bible to their people. Speaking of our responsibility to spread the gospel to the heathen he said: "We ask that God continue his mission, if the first missionaries who started out from Palestine had gone east instead of west. A few million a year spent on educating and christianizing the yellow races will place beyond the pale of possibility any future conflict between the white and yellow races."

Many people in Alberta would have liked to have bought Victory Bonds but for various reasons, most of which were associated with the war, they did not have enough money to secure those Dominion securities. They will have their chance now, for the War Savings Stamps will be within the reach of everyone and they will bring four and one-half per cent interest.

The Red Shield campaign fund at the present time amounts to $520,000. Any one wishing to subscribe to this worthy fund, who has been overlooked by the canvassers, can still pay subscriptions to the secretary, R. K. Peck.

Do not fail to attend these meetings. We tender you a cordial invitation.—Nazarine Mission.

A newspaper from England states that an Englishman named F. Taylor was the inventor of the depth charges that were adopted by the admiralty and were the chief means used to combat and conquer the submarines. This is of special interest to Clareholm owing to the inventor being a first cousin of J. W. Hallott and Mrs. Daffy. The report appeared in a Review-Advertiser last week and was a copy from a London paper.

"What do you mean?" demands the late lieutenant of Charlie Chaplin as he stands firing his rifle at the enemy his face turned to the rear. "I hate him so I can't look at him," answers Charlie.

Anglo-American Understanding

Paris.—Every day that passes increases the certainty that Britain and the United States have reached an agreement on all fundamental questions and are working closely together. Both sides have made considerable concessions. Britain has accepted the U. S. views as to certain vital phases of the league of nations and the U. S. has tendered to Britain with regard to the contention regarding freedom of the seas says a U. S. press correspondent.

No regret should be wasted over this surrender for it was the weakest point in the American program. That was the only point left out of the controversies first with Britain and then with Germany over the rights of neutrals. The United States claimed for privilege and the existing laws were to remain free with both sides. Britain contended that while these laws were applicable in former times they were not so any longer since modern wars are fought, not between professional armies, and between states, but with the people. Everybody is a combatant in a certain sense and therefore everything is contraband. The United States was willing to accede to this view, when on entering the war they helped the allies to tighten the blockade.

The chief cause of the present concession to Britain is the realization that the day is indeed past when wars can be fought according to rules of honor, and that the world will observe them. The real evil is not the breaking of war rules but war itself. Why, therefore, waste efforts in drafting rules which would be better extended towards preventing war altogether?

The best preventive plan yet suggested is the establishment of a League of Nations. If a strong league with suitable machinery is organized, the whole question of the freedom of the seas immediately becomes a secondary one. This reasoning may be considered the basis of the present warm Anglo-American understanding.

Troops Leave Germany

All Canadian Fighting Divisions are Now in Belgium

Ottawa.—Confirmation of the statement that the third Canadian division, the first of the fighting divisions from Canada to reach Europe, will probably sail from France about March 1, is contained in a cable from Sir Edward Kemp, overseer minister of militia, received at Ottawa yesterday. The cable gives the exact location of all the Canadian fighting divisions and proves conclusively that they are now in Belgium and not in Germany.

The first division, it is stated, now at Ypres, midway between Lille and Namur, having arrived from the Rhine about ten days ago. The second division is located at Namur, having reached that place from the Rhine just about the time the cable was sent.

The third division is at Tournai, also in Belgium and is expected to begin the movement from there to England the second week of February, and from there to France about March 1. The fourth division is situated at Nivelles, twenty-five miles south of Brussels. Certain corps, such as garrison artillery, cavalry and hospital units, with the cavalry, are moving to England also.

Say Allies Must Evacuate Russia

If They Desire Their Fitness to Act as Arbitrators

Paris.—Further to our story that Britain has agreed to the invitation of the allied and associated powers for a conference with the Russian factions at Prince's Islands is given by an article in the Bolshevik official newspaper, "Pravda." It reads:

"The Leningrad article, which was signed by M. Nekhlyau, lays stress on the indirect character of the invitation, noting that it is more neither addressed nor sent to the allied and associated powers for a conference with the Russian factions at Prince's Islands is given by an article in the Bolshevik official newspaper, 'Pravda.'

Their initiative, he adds, may be taken seriously.

W. N. U. 1249

For Return of Kaiser

Paris.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, according to the Echo de Paris, is endeavoring to bring about the return of Emperor William, after the British and French governments. Britain has accepted the U. S. views as to certain vital phases of the league of nations and the U. S. has tendered to Britain with regard to the contention regarding freedom of the seas says a U. S. press correspondent.

No regret should be wasted over

Young Soldiers Will Watch Rhine

60 Battalions Will Be Sent Immediately to Release Old Men London.—The regulations governing the armies of occupation are to be issued in an official statement to be issued by Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war. The statement says:

"The British military commandant of the Rhine, General Sir Joseph Flavelle, representing the British ministry of munitions, and Director Morrow, of the imperial aircraft board, and thereby became the owners, costing more than $100,000,000, which was provided by the British and used by Canada in training Canadian air fighters."

"The new armistice will begin formally on March 1, will consist of the first members of those who have enlisted since January 1, 1916, and who do not exceed 37 years of age.

Volunteers will be accepted for one year's service from among men who have not been called to the colors or who have released their battalions of young soldiers now on home service will be immediately help guard the Rhine bridgeheads and release the older men."

"The men of the new armies will be paid bounties ranging from ten shillings and sixpence per week for privates, to forty-two shillings for colonels, in addition to ordinary pay. Length will be granted on as generous a scale as possible."

"The occupation armies will be the home army, the army of the Rhine, the army of the middle east, a department of the far north and garrisons of the crown colonies and India."

"These arrangements seem to be the best advisable for the year of 1919. During the year, however, no arrangement will be made with the old British regular army so as to provide, on a voluminous basis, overseas garrisons and foreign stations."

"The task of the British is to be in virtually total darkness; the hospitals being the only places where lights can be shown without danger of attacks by strikers. Everywhere else the use of light has caused the suspension of work in cases where such drastic action was not taken, the people were forced by threats of secret police lights. Even in cases where it is considered safe to use more than one candle and the supply of candles is rapidly dinishing."

Consider Adriatic Question

With View to Determining Merits of Claims Forward

Paris.—A committee of experts from all countries representing Great Britain, the United States, France and Italy, has been in session at Fiume inquiry into the occupation of various fort along the eastern frontier.

This committee came to the attention of the meeting of premiers held in London early in December, prior to the arrival of President Wilson. It was decided to ask four additional experts to be added to the committee to determine the merits of the respective claims being put forward in that region.

Meetings of the commission have been suspended indefinitely, it is said, owing to the fact that the Italian representative, who is said to not be in entire accord with his colleagues as to the desirability of the inquiry.

Turks Attacking Armenian Villages

Feared Another Chapter of Atrocities Will Be Added to Record

London.—Intensity anxiety is felt by Armenians here over reports that large numbers of Turks and Kurds are attacking Armenian villages. It is feared that still another chapter of atrocities will be added to the Turkish record before the allies are able to relieve pressure on the front.

Details still are lacking of the massacre at Bakur after the Turks, reinforced by Tartar and German troops, had captured the city. Unofficial reports from the Armenian here say that still another chapter of atrocities will be added to the Turkish record before the allies are able to relieve pressure on the front.

Details of the massacre in Armenian villages, which are situated in the surrounding region.

Dent's Megantic Story

Habana.—Officials of the White Star line here emphatically deny the charges made by a number of dentists returning on the Megantic that conditions aboard the steamer were not good. They say here that dentists from the Canadian steamship Megantic, which was recently in the port, were ill-treated and that the men's quarters were kept in excellent conditions.

American Will Inaugurate Aerial Service Throughout Canada

New York.—The New York Sun says:

"Roy U. Conger, a nephew of Edward H. Conger, United States minister to China at the time of the Boxer rebellion, has been appointed representative of the British ministry of munitions, and Director Morrow, of the imperial aircraft board, and thereby became the owners, costing more than $100,000,000, which was provided by the British and used by Canada in training Canadian air fighters."

"The transaction was closed at Tonkin, and the job of assembling 350 airplanes, which will be used for spare parts, tanks, cameras and other equipment, was at once begun under the direction of G. E. Erickson, son of Tom, Mr. Conger's Canadian representative."

"The whole equipment will be moved from the Royal Flying Corps training fields at Arnou Heights, Kathburn, Mohawk, Beaumont, and in other parts of Canada to Leaside, the site of which, recently granted to Mr. Conger for six months by the Dominion government."

"The price paid was not divulged
but it is estimated to be in the vicinity of the original cost of the equipment.
Mr. Conger's plan for the use and disposal of the stupendous equipment are merely in the making, but the immediate development of them is concentrated in Canada. Al-

Chaplin Disguise Too Natural for Huns to Resist

An example of practical camouflage is given by Charlie Chaplin in his second million dollar picture, "Should Arms?" to be shown at the Rex Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next, when he disguises himself as a tree stump and starts on a spilling trip through a forest. Chaplin does not try to pass as a pair of Huns, seeking firewood, who promptly decide to chop down the human stump as an addition to the load of wood they are about to take back to their trenches.

In Charlie's opinion, his attempt at camouflage was entirely too successful, and his resentment over the stupidity of the Hun in mistaking him for a genuine stump gets him into countless difficulties.
